ALTONA MINOR HOCKEY ASSOCIATION COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

This code of conduct policy is intended to promote participation and encourage respect for all participants within the Altona Minor Hockey (AMH) Association. Coaches are to review AMH Association's Code of Conduct Policy, the coach handbook and sign the document if in agreement. Coaches who decide not to sign this document will not be permitted to coach any team within AMH. The intent of the Coaches Code of Conduct Policy is to influence coach behavior and to identify what the AMH Association has determined to be expected and acceptable behavior.

Coaches Code of Conduct Policy:

- 1) To be reasonable when scheduling games and practices remembering that young athletes have other interests and obligations.
- 2) To teach athletes to play fairly and to respect the rules, officials, opponents, and teammates.
- 3) To ensure all athletes receive meaningful instruction and support, appropriate and reasonable playing time.
- 4) Not to ridicule or yell at any players, game officials or other team officials for making (perceived) mistakes or for poor performance.
- 5) To remember that children play to have fun, and I will create an environment where they will develop self-confidence, trust, and respect.
- 6) Not to question the game official's judgment or honesty in public.
- 7) To reasonably assure that equipment and facilities are safe and match the athlete's ages and ability.
- 8) To remember that children need a coach they can respect. I will be generous with praise, and I will set a good example.
- 9) To abide by the AMH Association "24-Hour Rule"
- 10) I will remember that I am representing our community and act accordingly.
- 11) I will use equipment supplied by AMH in a respectful way and ensure dressing rooms in Altona and other communities are clean when leaving.
- 12) To obtain proper training and ensure that I have the Hockey Manitoba certification for the level I am coaching.

I agree to abide by the Code of Conduct Policy as set forth by the AMH Association

I also agree to abide by the rules, regulations, and decisions as set by the AMH Association.
